

ANNOUNCEMENT:

The Diocese has updated protocols for Mass Attendance beginning this weekend, May 22-23. Please read the following carefully & if you are a Lector, Lay Distributor or Usher, pay careful attention to the items listed below that pertain to those roles:

- Facemasks are no longer required, but certainly those that wish to continue may do so
- The obligation to attend mass will begin again on the weekend of June 5-6
- Sanitizing between masses is not needed
- Confessions may return to normal
- Congregational singing may resume
- Missals will be ordered and may be used
- Collections will be taken & the kids collection will resume
- The Sign of Peace will continue to be omitted
- Holy Communion will be distributed only under the species of bread

LECTORS:

We will continue with just one Lector & that lector should bring the book to the altar during the procession.

LAY DISTRIBUTOR:

Will continue to sanitize their hands prior to distributing and we are requesting that they continue to wear a mask.

USHERS:

Will resume doing the collection basket as we have in the past by collecting down the aisles.

- We will need two volunteers for ushering this weekend. Please contact the office to do so.
