

Christ the King Stewardship Planning Guide 2019

The starting point of Christian stewardship is that everything is a gift from God, In gratitude for God's generosity, we dedicate a portion of these gifts – our time, talent and treasure (money) – to further God's kingdom. If we truly believe that God gives us all that we have, gratitude is one response. Trust is another. When we realize that God has provided for us and will continue to do so, we recognize that our real security lies in God. Our God, who has given us all, will take care of our future.

Principle One: Give back to God, in the spirit of grateful dependence, a portion of everything that our Maker has given us. In working for the Church, and giving to the church, we often give what is a left over amount of our time, talent and treasure. This makes this sharing a secondary aspect of our life. With stewardship we are encouraged to place God, and His Church, first because all we have is a gift from God.

Principle Two: See that your gift of time, talent and treasure is a sacrifice, that is, an offering that makes holy all the efforts and earnings of the past week, as well as, a donation that seems almost more than you can afford. In other words, our gifts of time, talent and treasure should have some bite to it, so we are putting God first and trusting in God.

Principle Three: Look to the Biblical concept of tithing as a barometer, guideline, or norm for estimating and determining the amount you give. Tithing = 10% of one's time, talent and treasure. This is a goal to work towards. No one can tell anyone what they must give. Rather, you as individuals and families should prayerfully consider what you need to give according to the blessings that God has bestowed upon you. A current method of calculating the tithe is to shoot for 10% of income divided as follows: 5% for local parish – 1% Diocese (DAA) – 4% for other charities.

Example:

Annual Income	parish weekly/annually 5%	Diocese 1%	Other charities 4%
$40,000	$38.46/wk	$2000/yr	$1600

It is good to take time to prayerfully consider each year the goals you and your family have for faithful stewardship. Couples should take time to seriously discuss this. Parents should talk appropriately with their children how you as a family and how they should sacrifice part of the gifts received from God of TIME – TALENT – TREASURE.

TIME/TALENT: What ways have I/we given of our time and talent in service to our parish (and other volunteer activities) this past year? Is God calling me/us to respond in a different way this coming year? [Especially take time to talk about "talents"/gifts that you see in your children and how they can use them to help others.]

TREASURE: Start with some math "homework" based on last year's earnings/giving. Is God calling me/us to greater sacrifice? Remember God is never outdone in generosity! Try to come up with an estimate of giving for the year. Use the suggestions above and the planning guide below as to how you hope to apportion your giving in the coming year. [NOTE: this is for your own planning and will not be returned to the parish. Keep it in a handy place (with giving envelopes) to help guide you.
